Opportunities for Exhibitors and Sponsors

We at Tuskegee University's School of Veterinary Medicine are pleased to offer you a special opportunity to advertise your products and services. Your participation will help ensure the high quality continuing education that has become a tradition at Tuskegee University. Furthermore, you will benefit from having your name in front of a very diverse population of veterinarians and aspiring veterinarians.

Our 44th Annual Veterinary Medical Symposium provides several options to you. We encourage you to give serious consideration to the possibilities listed below.

- 1) We offer you a wide variety of opportunities to show your support through unrestricted sponsorships or, if you prefer, restricted sponsorships of a specific lecturer or activity.
- 2) For those of you eager to meet our racially, culturally, ethnically, and geographically diverse veterinary medical student body, we offer you the recruiter option.
- 3) As always, we offer space in our Symposium's exhibit area as an excellent location to get your company's name, products, and services in front of veterinarians, soon-to-be veterinarians, and graduate students.
